

For those of you with Internet access we would like you to join our London Scrabble League IO group.

‘What's the LSL IO Group?’ I hear you ask.

- It's a good way to stay informed about matters relating to the London Scrabble League. The group will give you easy access to:
- Opportunities to communicate easily with all members of the group – great for finding subs.
- Passing on news - sometimes happy, sometimes sad.
- Member polls (rarely used)
- No need to worry that you will receive lots of messages. Traffic is normally light and if you respond to a message asking for a sub you should reply to the person asking and not the group.
- You can choose to receive all messages individually or just once a day in a digest form.

How can I join?

- You will receive an email invitation as the group is strictly only for LSL members. If you leave the LSL your membership of the group will cease.
- It is free, there is of course no obligation to join and it will not replace our excellent LSL website at <http://www.londonscrabbleleague.org/>

To LSL members who do not have Internet access.

- Don't miss out - get online and sign up!
